At Traveling Tutus, we believe unneeded costumes and dance attire are a precious resource that can be repurposed to bring joy to children all around the world. By collecting, packaging, and shipping those no longer needed items we are allowing children all over the world to experience one of life’s greatest joys, DANCE!

As a dancer, dance parent, instructor, or friend of the arts you know all to well how dance can be used to instill confidence, give joy, and foster self expression. Help share that gift with others. A recital costume that was used once and then tucked into the back corner of your closet can do so more much good if given the chance. Let your costumes dance again! More importantly though, let your costumes bring joy to others!

Lean more and get involved today!

Traveling Tutus is a registered 501(c)3 non-profit organization.
Missy Dray currently lives in Nashville TN, and has been a choreographer and dance educator for the past 17 years. After graduating from Oklahoma City University with a BS in Dance Management, she danced and choreographed for the Belleforte Dance Company and traveled extensively doing choreography and master classes for many competitive studios in Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, Oklahoma, and Texas. She was a guest lecturer at Southwest Oklahoma State University on teaching methods twice while still in college herself. After moving to Nashville she taught in the Commercial Entertainment Department, at Columbia State, the Dance Department of Nashville School of the Arts, and currently teaches in the Vanderbilt Dance Program and choreographs for the Vanderbilt Dance Theatre. Her choreography has been performed by backup dancers and in music videos of several Pop, Christian, and Country music artist including Angel Taylor’s “Like You Do” featured on VH1, and for a Universal Records flash mob music video for Josh Turner’s “Why Don’t We Just Dance” featured on the CMT website. She danced and choreographed for Nashville’s Found Movement Group, as well as Oklahoma City’s RACE Dance company. You can view video, photos, and keep up on current projects at draydance.com

Lori Boyle
Owner and Director • Cherrie Anderson Dance Company

Lori Boyle is a studio owner in Omaha, NE. She directs, teaches and choreographs for the competition team. Under her direction her team has won several regional and national titles and choreography awards. She has extensive training in Ballet, Jazz, Contemporary and Modern. She received her training from Mary Waugh Taylor in Omaha, and School of Ballet Omaha under the direction of Derrick Wilder. She has also trained with several guest artists and schools including Dayton Ballet of Ohio, Joffrey Ballet, Hubbard Street, Moscow Ballet, Lincoln Midwest Ballet and University of Nebraska. Lori has shared her experience, knowledge and creativity with the dance community by teaching local master classes, teaching and choreographing award winning pieces for the Dallas Conservatory, adjudicating and choreographing in local performances with the Omaha Modern Dance Collective and as a judge for Showbiz National Talent and PrimeTime Dance. She continues her training as an adult by attending several conventions, workshops and shows annually.

Jennifer Rivers
Owner and Director • Turning Pointe Academy of Dance, IN

Jen is the Owner and Director of Turning Pointe Academy Of Dance in Indianapolis, IN. She brings to the table over 13 years of experience in competitive dance. Under her direction, the studio has climbed its way to the top and is nationally recognized in the top 50 studios by Dance Magazine. Many of her students have not only obtained numerous overall national title awards within the dance competition circuits, they have also continued to dance professionally throughout the United States. Some highlights include performing with Holland America Cruise Lines and Walt Disney World. As the Owner, Director and a dance mom, Jen has been blessed to be able to enjoy dance from both perspectives. She is thankful to all of her parents who understand her passion for providing the appropriate vehicle for all of her dancers to excel as they express their personal feelings through the art of dance.
